

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 8, 2005

Hanes Fabrics Company Acquires Sani-Line Sales

Hanes Fabrics Company has acquired Sani-Line Sales of Carrollton, GA. Sani-Line is a converter and distributor of drapery linings and drapery products with national distribution. The addition of the Sani-Line business offers Hanes the opportunity to broaden both its product line and customer base.

The Sani-Line product line consists of traditional drapery lining products and offers some diversity from Hanes traditional line with two color programs that can be used as linings or face fabrics.

“The addition of Sani-Line Sales strengthens Hanes Fabrics’ core drapery linings business,” said Rod Poole, President of Hanes Industries. “David Bentley has been converting and selling drapery linings for nearly twenty years, and we are excited about the additional products and sources this acquisition brings to our lineup. Sani-Line represents our fourth acquisition of a drapery linings business. I believe this is a strong statement of our commitment to the market both now and into the future.”

COMPANY DESCRIPTION: Hanes Fabrics, based in Conover, NC, is one of America’s leading finishers, converters, and distributors of a wide range of woven construction fabrics for the home textile and hospitality industry. Hanes serves the global market from 15 sales and distribution centers located across North America, South America, and Europe.

Hanes Fabrics is a division of Leggett & Platt – a diversified manufacturer that conceives, designs, and produces a broad variety of engineered components and products that can be found in virtually every home, office, retail store, and automobile. Leggett & Platt is a Fortune 500 company traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol LEG.

For additional information contact:
Tim Allen, Marketing Manager
1-800-430-8296